THE WAR TODAY

Venice has again been subjected to an Austrian aerial bombardment, Venna announces. The official report states that bombs were successfully dropped by a scaplane squadren on forts in the suburbs, the arsenal, the axiation station and barracks, as well as on the gas works and rallway station. All the raiding units returned safely.

In pressing their pursuit of the Serbians the Tentonic allies have captured 5,000 additional prisoners. Berlin announces.

Athens dispatches estimate that more than 80,000 Rulgarians are facing 50,000 Serbinns in the Monastir region in south Serbla. The Serbian forces which have evacuated Prilep following their compelled abandonment of Babuna pass, are expected to retire to the heights between Prelep and Monastir and eventually retreat towards Albania, the advices state.

In the face of the concentration of both Austrian and Russian forces on the Rumanian frontier. Rumania is expected speedily to reach a decision regarding her future attitude towards the two groups of belligerents, according to a Bucharest dispatch to Rome.

An attack by a German aeroplane squadron on a British camp near Roperinghe, six miles from Ypres in Belgium, is reported by the Berlin war office.

The Italians are pressing their campaign against Gorizia, Rome reporting an intense hombardment in this zone of operations. The Austrians are replying vigorously to the Italian artillery fire and apparently are bringing up reinforcements in expectation of renewed infantry operations by General Caxdorna's forces.

Paris learned that the next meeting of the allied war council will be held in London, with the probability that the Russian and Italian governments will be represented. The Italian official report on the sinking of the liner Ancona, outlined in a Naples dispatch, asserts that the steamship was fired upon without warning and that the boats were shelled while they were being lowered.

Serbs in General Retreat.

Paris, Nov. 19 .- The Saloniki dispatch announcing the general retreat of the Serbs on the southwestern front after the capture of Habuna pass by the Bulgars is without official confirmation, says a Havas dispatch from Athens filed yesterday. The only fact established is the evacuation of Prelep by the Serbs. The abandonment of Babuna pass has been expected in Athens military circles for several days as it was not considered possible for the Serbs, nothwithstanding their heroic defense, to resist longer repeated Bulgarian attacks, especially as they threatened envelopment by a movement from Tetovo and Kitsevo. Arriving in Greece.

The Serblans probably will retire to the heights between Prelep and Monastir, the inhabitants of which are taking refuge in Albania and Greek territory. Large numbers have arrived at Florina, Greece, but the more well-to-do are going to Saloniki,

The military governor of Monastir is reported to have appointed a commitee of notables to preserve order but it is feared it will not be possible to restrain the bands of Komitajis (irregulars), in the environs of the city.

The Serbian army is expected to retreat towards Albania. It is estimated there are 50,000 Serbians in the Monastir region opposed to more than 80,000 Bulgars.
